PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:
1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. The dividends have averaged 50 per cent. yearly, and are payable on the Anniversary of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual accretions over and above a surplus of interest left to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of insurance are as cheap as any Company doing a safe business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the party insured—which note, in case of death, is STILL deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ETNA	1 91
BROOKLYN	1 12
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 65
EQUITABLE	1 24
MANHATTAN	1 42

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States. Its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted. These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1868

THE "CONSTITUTIONAL" CONVENTION.

This body has been in session just three weeks. Apparently, it has just entered upon the threshold of the special work confided to it by the Congress. Yet there need be no doubt as to the character of its action. The temper of the body indicates as clearly what it will do, as if its work was already completed. The moderation hoped for by its friends, is no part of its programme. Its bitterness and vindictiveness, against those who oppose Radicalism, is intense, and a Constitution may be looked for as extreme and as violent as from any other Southern States. It is well, perhaps, that this should be so. The indifference, the stolid recklessness, of the white people of the State, to the dangers which environ them, can alone be broken and their energies aroused by the severest treatment. The chains and manacles being forged for them by the Radicals must bind them tightly and chafe severely, before the great masses of the whites of the State will be made to feel and to consider, that there is any thing left them to struggle for, but mere bread and meat. Liberty, the rights of freedom, and the blessings of republican government, since the war closed, have been with many, matters of the most inconsiderable moment—mere secondary franchises, not comparable with the great duty and interest of providing something to eat and to wear.—What can rouse them from their death-like slumber? What can bring the 40,000 white men in the State to the polls, to exercise the duty and the privilege of voting, who have hitherto neglected to vote, since the war closed? If they have concluded that liberty is a farce, and the rights of freedom are not worth protecting, then they deserve to be slaves, and the slaves of their former bondsmen.

What is to be the character of the new Constitution, which the Radical Convention will present to the people of North Carolina? Let us present a summary of its leading features, as plainly indicated by the action already taken or already determined upon in the Committee rooms. The intelligence and virtue of the body are incapable of originating a Constitution. The precise wants of the people of North Carolina are unknown to them. The adaptation of the great principles of organic law, to secure liberty, law and order to society, to protect its morals and its life, to bring out the resources of the State, to invigorate the energies of the people, is beyond their reach. Happily for them, others have gone before them, and, from the labors of the intellects and virtues of others, a piece of patch-work, a little from this and a little from that, from the organic law of other States and of our own, in many cases wholly unsuited to the present condition of North Carolina, will be brought from the uncouth and unpractised laboratory of the Convention. It leading and most objectionable features will be as follows?

1. Universal and unlimited suffrage to the male negroes of the State, and the largest disfranchisement of the white race, probably, allowable by the Congress.

2. The most easy and untrammelled access of the negro voters to the jury box and to office.

3. The doors of the Legislature, in both branches, will be thrown wide open to the same class of voters, unrestricted by any requisitions to secure intelligence or virtue, or property in the representative. The nearest approach to simple democracy, in this respect, maugre the almost universal doubt now existing as to the capacity of the people to govern themselves, will be sought. And this will be done, because it is the nearest road to anarchy, military despotism and ultimately to monarchy.

4. All limitations and obstructions to the free intercourse and equality of the black and white races, as to marriage and social and political contact, will be removed.

5. Very large and pretentious schemes of general education will be provided for.—The doors of the University, the common schools and all other public institutions of learning, will be opened alike to black and white pupils and teachers.

6. The Legislature will be endowed with extravagant powers of taxation upon property, business success and enterprise,—thus closing the door to the influx of capital or immigration,—but of course exempting the negroes as far as possible from taxation.

7. Among a people prostrated with debt and with enterprise trammelled at every point, the largest provision will be made for an increase of State and County officers, accessible only to the "faithful and loil," before unknown in North Carolina, rendering heavy taxation necessary, though of course careful to guard the rights of the people, by allowing them to elect them.

8. Our Court system, heretofore nearly adequate to our wants, is to be rendered vastly expensive, by the number of the Courts, and by the increase of the State Judges to sixteen and possibly to eighteen, instead of eleven as now, and the creation of one Judge for every County, with the power of increasing the Borough Courts and Judges for our towns and cities. This looks very much like offering a bribe to the lawyers of the State, very few of whom are considered "loil," to become "loil" as soon as possible.

9. The Militia of the State is to be composed of black and white men, whom the Legislature will be empowered to mix up, so that not only all distinctions of color may be abolished, but, of course, not seen or felt.

10. Appended to so monstrous a system of organic law, as the foregoing, will be some pretence of relief for the "dear people," wherewith to "catch larks." The public State debt, acknowledged to be legal, will not be repudiated in form, but the demand for taxation upon the State will be so heavy, under the foregoing regime, to support the State government and to meet the Federal tax, that all hope of provision to pay the State's interest, if such a Constitution is fixed upon us, must be deferred to a distant period, when the population and enterprise and capital of the State shall be nearly doubled.

SUFFRAGE—KNOW NOTHINGISM.

The report from the Committee on Suffrage, to the Convention, is rather an unique document. First comes the majority report, signed by C. C. Pool, C. C. Jones, D. J. Rich, J. H. Harris, (negro,) J. A. McDonald, J. P. Andrews, E. Benbow, and H. C. C. Cherry, (negro.) Then comes minority report, No. 1, signed by T. J. Candler and A. Congleton. Then the excellent minority report, No. 2, signed by Messrs. Graham and Durham, which we have published.—Then minority report, No. 3, signed by J. R. French.

The majority report is designed, no doubt, to admit to suffrage every male person born in the United States, and all naturalized persons, residents of this State one year, and 21 years of age and upwards. This sounds liberal, but the plain grammatical construction of the following article knocks in the head the views we are disposed to entertain of the liberality of the majority. Is the Convention ready to go Know Nothingism? What will Holden say to this? Do they mean to require of all foreigners a residence of twenty-one years and upwards, before voting? Read the following exact copy of Section 1, literatim et punctuatim:

"SECTION 1. Every male person, born in the United States, and every male person who, has been naturalized, twenty-one years and upward, who shall have resided in this State twelve months next preceding the election, and three months in the county, in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed an elector."

This is decidedly illiberal to foreigners, and we judge the people will think so.—Candler and Congleton are not so liberal. They would exclude many from suffrage, and French would exclude every rebel.—We doubt whether, from what we have heard, French is entitled to a seat in the Convention. The people of Chowan do not regard him as a citizen of the State. His residence is said to be in Washington city, whether of the "Fourth Ward," or not, we are not advised.

YESTERDAY.

The Convention was engaged, as will be seen from the proceedings, in the consideration of an ordinance in favor of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford R. R. Co., providing for the State's endorsement of $1,000,000 bonds, and for the canceling and destroying $1,500,000 of the mortgage of $4,000,000, authorized by the General Assembly of 1866-'7. The subject was fully discussed and resulted in the passage of the ordinance. It is believed, with the endorsement, the bonds can be disposed of upon terms greatly advantageous to the prosecution of the Road.

THE DISTRICT COMMANDER.—It is understood that Gen. Canby will visit this City the present week. It is proper and necessary, no doubt, that he should do so. The responsibilities, which rest upon him, are of so grave a character, that it would be difficult for him to discharge them with satisfaction to himself, without a personal inspection of affairs in both States. His subordinates here, no doubt, have kept him properly advised of every thing, yet we should not wonder if he has had an avalanche of outside correspondence, calculated, if noticed by him, to bewilder and disturb any one.

Should he be as approachable as some officers are, he will be equally annoyed by the excessive anxiety of some very "loil" people to pour into his ears their budget of patriotic devotion to him and to the government, in the shape of very wise and sage suggestions and very serious complaints against the "unterrified rebels." But the General, we learn, is a soldier and preserves his dignity, and is a little too old not to have his "eyes skinned." Some will no doubt be very ready to dance around the General, and make him believe, if he be not sceptical, that the "moon is made of green cheese." All we ask of the General, is not to forget that useful correspondence about the Banks of this City, sent him from this place, only a few months ago.

SUPREME COURT.—Opinions delivered as follows:

BY PEARSON, Ch. J. In Bunting, ex. McIlhenny, from New Hanover, judgment set aside and judgment of non suit. In State ex. Parker, from New Hanover, no error.—In March ex. Phelps, from Davidson, judgment affirmed. In State ex. Elam, from Franklin, judgment reversed and judgment for defendant.

BY BATTLE, J. In State ex. Horah, from New Hanover, no error. In State ex. Mitchell, from Lenoir, no error. In State ex. Pollord, from Carteret, error. In State ex. Banks, from Guilford, error, judgment must be reversed. In State ex. Wright and Hairston, from Stokes, no error.

BY READE, J. In Gibbs ex. Gibbs, from Hyde, no error. In State ex. Kearzey, from Granville, no error. In Rose ex. Coble, from Guilford, no error. In State ex. Money, from Wilkes, error.

COSTS AND FEES.—We are indebted to J. N. Bunting, Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake, for the following extract from a letter received by him from District Headquarters, which conveys information in a matter of much importance to suitors:

"Referring to your communication of Jan. 1st., I am instructed by the Commanding General to state that wherever, by the terms of military orders, the enforcement of a judgment is stayed, the collection of costs and fees incident to the same is likewise stayed."

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

MONDAY, Feb. 3, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by the Rev Mr Atkinson, of the city.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) presented a petition from Ann Underdew, (t. w. c.) praying for a divorce from Gilliam Underdew. Referred.

Mr. McCubbins, a memorial from the citizens of Rowan, praying that the Usury law might be changed. Referred.

Mr. Abbott stated that the Committee on Finance, in view of Gen. Canby's visit, had deferred negotiating the proposed loan.

Mr. Ragland, a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to report an ordinance, voiding all contracts made, whose consideration was Confederate money, when offered to be paid. Lies over.

Mr. Duckworth, a resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Henderson county. Lies over.

Mr. Morton, a resolution in favor of sessions, from and after to day, from 10 A. M. until 2 P. M.

Hood, (negro,) moved to strike out "2" and insert "3."

After some little debate, the hour of 10 A. M. for assembling was decided upon, and the hour of adjournment left open.

Mr. Glover, a resolution in regard to the Bastardy law. Referred.

Mr. Petree, a resolution to memorialize Congress on a reduction of Revenue tax on tobacco. Lies over.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) called up his resolution, appointing a Committee of 8, one from each Judicial District, on the subject of re districting the Congressional Districts of the State. Adopted.

Mr. Glover's ordinance, to revive debts, was next on calendar, and, on motion of Mr. Rich, it was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Welker's ordinance, giving the Superior Courts power to examine and admit applicants to the Bar, was next taken up.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, objected to its passage. He was willing to some innovations, but he wished these innovations to be improvements. Our present system was a good one, and the proposed change was an innovation, without reference to any improvement whatever.

Mr. Abbott moved to refer the matter to the Committee on the Judiciary. Carried.

The ordinance of Mr. French, of Bladen, repealing the provisions of the Revenue law, requiring corporations and employers to list and pay the taxes of their employees, was allowed to be withdrawn by him, as an order of Gen. Canby covered the ground.

Mr. Candler's ordinance, repealing the Act of general amnesty, passed by the Legislature of 1866, except so much as applies to females, came up.

Mr. Holt moved to lay it on the table, but withdrew it, in order to hear Mr. Candler.

Mr. C. proceeded to relate various "outrages" that had been committed, and the parties shielded from punishment by that Act. He did not expect the matter to come up so early, and, therefore, asked that it be continued on the calendar, until this day week, at 12 o'clock. Agreed to.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) moved to reconsider the vote, postponing the Relief Bill until Saturday next, so that the House could take it up at any time intervening.—Agreed to.

Mr. Rodman gave notice that he would move to take it up to-morrow.

Mr. Heaton said that the hour of 12 o'clock had arrived, but that he, as Chairman of the Committee on the Bill of Rights, would waive all claim to discuss the Report, as the special order of this hour, so that Mr. Abbott's ordinance in regard to the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad might be considered.

The following is the ordinance:

AN ORDINANCE REDUCING THE AMOUNT OF BONDS AUTHORIZED TO BE ISSUED BY THE WILMINGTON, CHARLOTTE AND RUTHERFORD RAILROAD COMPANY.

Whereas, By an Act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, ratified the 20th day of December, 1866, the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company was authorized to place upon its roadway property and franchise, a first mortgage, to secure an issue of Bonds, not to exceed in amount four millions dollars, which mortgage has been duly executed and recorded according to the provisions of said Act; and whereas, the State holds a second mortgage upon said Road for two millions of dollars, to protect which interest it is manifestly essential that the Bonds to be issued under said first mortgage should be reduced in amount, and their value enhanced by the endorsement of the State, so that the Company may be enabled to complete its Road; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the President of this Convention, or the Governor, or the Public Treasurer of the State, or either of them, be, and they are hereby authorized and directed, in behalf of the State, to endorse the bonds authorized as aforesaid, to the amount of one million dollars, which endorsement shall be in the words and figures following, to wit: "The principal and interest of this Bond is guaranteed by the State of North Carolina by ordinance of the Convention, ratified —— day of —— 1868." Provided: That the amount of the Bonds issued by authority of the said Act of the General Assembly, shall not exceed in the aggregate two millions, five hundred thousand dollars, and the remainder authorized to be issued, to wit: One million, five hundred thousand dollars shall be delivered to the President of this Convention, or to the Governor, or to the State Treasurer, and by him or them cancelled and destroyed.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from and after its ratification.

Mr. Abbott moved the adoption of the ordinance.

Mr. Sweet was sorry that his convictions of duty to the State would compel him to oppose a measure, that had engaged the warm and active support of his friend from New Hanover. He proceeded, at some length, to show the disadvantages under which the State would labor, by the passage of this measure. The liabilities of the State would be greatly increased, and an effort to save the two millions already invested would involve the State to as large an amount, if not larger. Though he yielded to no man in his desire to advance the prosperity of the State, and to develop her slumbering resources, yet he was opposed to involving the State, in her present impoverished condition, to save an expiring corporation, to her great detriment.

Mr. Abbott next spoke, defending the course of the President in his financial management of the Road, and advocating the adoption of the ordinance. During the course of his remarks, he said that he had it from high authority, that if the bonds received the endorsement of the State, they could be sold for ninety per cent. This was no vision, no supposition, but a substantial fact.

Mr. Sweet said that Mr. Abbott had drawn a wrong inference from his remarks. He had said nothing that could, in the remotest degree, reflect upon the honest and upright management of the President and Directors of that Road; and at some little length he proceeded to reply to Mr. Abbott's arguments in favor of the measure.

Mr. Tourgee said that if the old State debt is to be assumed unconditionally, there is but one question before us, and that is, shall the State let the two millions of dollars, which the State holds in the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, be swallowed up in the first mortgage of four millions of dollars, or whether an effort shall be made to save it. He did not believe that the new State, we are now building, is in any manner holden for the debts of the old one, further than the assetts of the old State have come into possession of the new one. He was confident that this view would be supported by the majority of this Convention. He would most unhesitatingly oppose this measure.—If, however, the Convention intends to accept, unconditionally, the old State debt and pay the same, dollar for dollar, he was clearly of the opinion that sound policy demands the adoption of this measure. And should it be adopted, he was as clearly of opinion that, before so doing, it should be amended. He offered the following amendment:

"In section 1st, 5th line, insert, after the word 'State,' the words: 'Elected under the provisions of this Constitution;' and after the word 'destroyed,' in 19th line, 1st section, insert the following: 'Provided, further, That five hundred thousand dollars, of the remaining two million five hundred thousand dollars of Bonds, be deposited with the Treasurer of the State, as collateral security of the State, for the above-named endorsement; and if the said Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad shall fail to pay either interest or principal of said endorsed Bonds, so that the State shall become liable for the same, by reason of said endorsement, and shall pay the same, then the State shall become the owner of said five hundred thousand dollars of Bonds; but if the said Railroad Company shall pay both interest and principal of said endorsed Bonds, so that the State shall not become liable for the same, by reason of its endorsement, then said five hundred thousand dollars of Bonds shall be the property of the said Railroad Company."

Mr. Laffin said that he was an internal improvement man, and would like to aid them in every way that he could, provided it created no addition to the public debt.—He favored Mr. Tourgee's amendment, and offered an amendment to it, as follows:

Add to 1st. "section: "Or that said one million, five hundred thousand dollars of bonds shall be cancelled and destroyed by the Trustees of said first mortgage, and certificate shall be printed upon the remaining bonds, certifying that two million, five hundred thousand dollars of bonds and all that are issued or are authorized to be issued, under the deed of trust or mortgage, are delivered to them, and that the additional one million, five hundred thousand dollars of bonds have been cancelled and destroyed, and that said certificate shall be signed by each of the Trustees."

Mr. Abbott accepted both the amendments, making an addition, after the 19th line of section 1st., if Mr. Tourgee would withdraw his amendment to the 5th. line of section 1st.

Mr. Tourgee agreed to withdraw it.

Mr. Heaton opposed the measure. He said that if we pass this ordinance, are we not in honor bound to take in consideration the many vast schemes of the same kind, involving more than 20,000,000 dollars? We would be neglecting the grave matters, that call us here. It was a matter of special legislation, that did not properly belong to a constitutional Convention. Mr. H. closed, by moving to postpone until the different standing Committees could make their reports.

Mr. Abbott again urged the passage of the ordinance and gave notice that, if Mr. H's. motion to postpone was voted down, he would call the previous question.

Mr. Heaton again stated his objections to the measure.

After a good deal of debate, Mr. Heaton withdrew his motion to postpone, in order to arrive at a direct vote.

The ordinance, as amended, was then put on its passage.

Mr. Abbott called for the yeas and nays. The called being sustained, the Secretary proceeded to call the roll, and the ballot resulted yeas 59; nays 49. So the ordinance, as amended, passed.

Mr. Durham moved to reconsider the vote.

Mr. Abbott moved to lay the motion on the table.

Pending which question, Mr. Forkner moved to adjourn, and it was carried.

For the Sentinel.

ETYMOLOGICAL ENQUIRY.

(OVERHEARD BY ——.)

Editors Raleigh Sentinel:—Wandering in fancy, the other day, upon the extreme outside of the motley mass congregated in your city, I was forcibly reminded of an item of information, once met in some old book, relative to a plan pursued in the fair city of Florence during the awful plague, which almost exterminated its inhabitants.

This was the collection, into one loathsome conglomeration, of various substances, abominable and poisonous per se, but which, being set on fire, would become transformed into a source of purification for the pestilence stricken city.

Let us accept the omen, though our eyes may be closed long before its earthly accomplishment, trusting that, sooner or later, the "fire" will be applied, and Baal and all his brood dealt with according to their deserts.

But to return to our muttons, and very black sheep they are! I was passing the statue of that noble gentleman, whom I found, on my first visit to beautiful Raleigh, covered with mockery and —— black crape, (though the cause for which he was so swathed, was so ludicrous, that when I looked into his illustrious eyes, I was sure I saw them actually indulge in a wink, which said: "I feel and appreciate my position as much as you do; but take my advice and bear it, as I do, quietly!") when the wind, bowing from the Capitol, brought me the annexed colloquy.

As you will percieve, the name of the Senior editor is introduced, as, being a public man, he must expect, as a matter of course. All who know him, and have not repudiated the old fashioned custom of telling the truth, will fully corroborate Sambo's assertion, as readily as does,

Yours truly, ——.

Said Sambo to Cuffee, one morning of late,
As he stood with his fingers at work on his pate,
In the Chamber of "Commons," which never before,
By name, represented the mass on its floor:
"Mistur Jones, Sir, there's one thing I can't no how figger;
How dis white trash kin 'cue Sir, dat nigger ain't nigger.
Of course, Sir, I swears dat de 'sertion is true,
But I can't square de subject adzactly. Kin you?"
Quoth Cuffee, quick giving his trowsers a hitch,
"I tells it as easy as tother from which.
Mr. Squash, Sir, no bodder at all, Sir. I find,
De matter's as clear, Sir, as mud to my mind!
I'se learn it's set down in some paper, or treddier
Things equil de same thing is equil each udder;
Dem white niggers knows they to equil to we,
An now de projection, I spose, Sir, you see!"
Says Sambo: "I do'nd, sir, and dat-es a fact,
Dough I squashes de motion, and wokes for de act.
Let 'em lie as they likes, all they says, Sir, I'll bark,
An' swear, of dey pays me, dat whith, Sir, is black,
But one thing upsets me, Sir, sho'nuff Sir, wory:
What Master Peil found in de big Dictionery.
I knows him of old, Sir, and up from his youth,
He's never spoke nuffing' cept riteness and truf.
He sticks to his word, and his colors is rolled in,
An' no yankee can't buy him, Sir, dough dey've done hold-n!
He never act 'em when he's meaning a 'no,'
An all dat he sarts, Sir, is bound to be so!
Now, of nigger ar'nt nigger and nigger ar'nt white,
Dat chap day calls "Ary Hall", Sir, must be right!"

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral waters and here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in the respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

CONSERVATIVE STATE CONVENTION.

This Convention will assemble at Tucker Hall, to-morrow morning, at 11 o'clock.

Delegates to the Convention, and members of the State Executive Committee, who may be in the City to-day are requested to meet in the Parlor of the Yarborough House, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock.

—New Advertisements.—W. A. Caldwell, Esq., Treasurer of the N. C. R. R. Co., gives notice to holders of coupons off the Bonds of the Company, and to holders of Bonds for money borrowed.

Fresh and Warranted Garden Seed,—the growth of 1867: J. H. Enslis, N. C. Bookstore.

Sargent's Dramatic Company: To night will be given "Don Cæsar De Bazan" and "Widow's Victim."

New York and N. C. Steamship Line,—the shortest Line North: Whitford, Dill & Co., Agents, No. 5, Craven St., Newbern.—We invite particular attention to their advertisement.

Bishop Atkinson.—This distinguished Divine preached a powerful and most searching sermon, to a large congregation, in Christ Church, in this City, on Sunday morning, and administered the rite of Confirmation to five persons.

At night, he preached at the African Church, and confirmed several colored persons.

On yesterday, he preached at the Chapel of St. Mary's School, and also administered the rite of Confirmation there.

Last night, the Bishop delivered a most entertaining, instructive and eloquent Lecture, in behalf of the charitable objects of the Young Men's Christian Association, before a select, intelligent and appreciative audience, in Commons Hall. His subject was "Personal impressions of the distinguished Orators of England." We hope, to-morrow, to be able to furnish a sketch of his effort, which the hour of closing our columns renders it impossible for us to do this morning.

Another Club.—We thank our excellent friend, Dr. J. H. Shelton, of Davidson, for a handsome club of subscribers to the Weekly Sentinel, with the cash. Keep up the encouraging work, friends.

And Yet Another.—Our friend R. A. Shotwell, of Rutherford, who has heretofore sent us several clubs, has increased our obligations to him for still another handsome list.

Look out House-keepers.—We learn that, on Sunday night, Gov. Manly's smoke-house was entered, by breaking two locks, and the whole of his salted pork, bacon, pickled beef and flour all stolen. These outrages are becoming of almost nightly occurrence, and call for the utmost vigilance and the most stringent measures of prevention.

New Sheriff.—R. K. Ferrell, Esq., entered upon his duties, as Sheriff of the county, on yesterday.

Disgusted.—There are some things that defy all the powers of human endurance. It is not surprising, therefore, that that eminent Orthoepist, Font. Taylord, Esq., should so seldom be seen in the lobbies of the mongrel Convention. We learn that Font declares that he cannot stand the horrible pronunciation with which his ears were assailed, on the occasion of one or two visits. He was compelled to beat a hasty and desperate retreat, or else he would, inevitably, have been guilty of the parliamentary indecorum of correcting, there and then, several of the speakers, who were particularly unfilial to the mother tongue!

"Life of Bishop Freeman."—We see that a work, bearing this title, by Dr. Norton, has been published at the North. A religious cotemporary, speaking of it, says:

"His first love for his Church, the simplicity of his tastes, his mingled meekness of spirit and earnestness of purpose, his devotion to labor and the esteem of his parishioners, together with his self-sacrificing toils when raised to the episcopate and traversing a vast diocese, and the oblation of his life to the service of his Master, are well set forth."

We suggest to our Raleigh Booksellers, that it would be well for them to order a few copies of this work. Bishop Freeman was for many years the Rector of Christ Church in this City. No man was ever more loved in any community; and his old friends and admirers would be glad to have this record of his useful and blameless Christian life.

"Kiss him, Giddings!"—Those, whose memories reach back a few years, cannot have forgotten this cruel fling at John A. Gilmer, repeated in every issue, with contemptuous and damaging comments, by an unmentionable paper of this city, which now, by a most marvellous somersault, leads the Radical ranks. The friends of Mr. Gilmer will also remember how they used to try to turn from his devoted head the stream of ridicule poured upon it by that paper, without mercy or end, for yielding too amiably, as many of them then believed, to the abolition demands on the South.

It is said that there was a scene in the "so-called" Constitutional Convention, last Saturday, which out-Giddings'd-Giddings himself, in affectionate osculation. It is to be hoped that the unmentionable paper aforesaid will make due note thereof, through its own Reporter. No other Reporter has dared to hint at this little by-play, for fear of offending the colored gentleman implicated, being called "a liar," or some other horrible thing, and then expelled for his impudence. But why should a colored gentleman be so offended? Why scorn to be slyly kissed—a sort of stolen kiss as it were—by a white brother, even in open Convention? In consenting to associate with these white lolists on equal terms, ought he not to expect that these liberties will be taken? But is not the white man, "purvide-he be truly loil," a man and a brother, too? And may he not, without offence, claim the rights of brotherhood?—May he not presume to place his thinner lips lovingly and tremblingly against the blubber dittos of colored gentlemen of his persuasion? And ought colored gentlemen to be ashamed to be thus saluted? How did a certain white man, so-called, feel on that interesting occasion? Did he feel

"That he sighed upon innocent lips
"That had never been sighed on by any one but"— his? or how? "Kiss him, Giddings"—quoth'a.

Labor for the W. N. C. Railroad.—We learn that about one hundred negroes left this city, on Sunday, going West, to work on the Western Extension. They are employed by W. F. McKesson, Esq., one of the largest Contractors on the Road.—Others will follow.

THE SUPERIOR COURTS,—SPRING TERMS.

The Judges of the Superior Courts of the State will hold the Spring Terms as follows:

1st Circuit—	Judge	Warren.
2d "	"	Barnes.
3rd "	"	Gilliam.
4th "	"	Vacancy.
5th "	"	Mitchell.
6th "	"	Buxton.
7th "	"	Little.
8th "	"	Shipp.

STATE ITEMS.

—An enthusiastic Conservative meeting was held in Jones County, on the 25th. ult. Geo. W. Simmons, Esq., presided, and R. Oldfield, Esq., was Secretary. Appropriate resolutions were passed, and delegates were appointed to the Conservative Convention, which meets in this City, to-morrow.

—Delegates to the Conservative State Convention will be passed over most of the Railroads in the State for one fare.

—A meeting of the Conservatives of Davidson was held at the Court House in Lexington, on the 1st. inst. H. W. Brummell, Esq., presided and J. H. Welburn was Secretary. Mr. Welburn made an excellent and effective speech, and the Hon. J. M. Leach addressed the meeting at length and with great ability. Patriotic resolutions were adopted, and about fifty delegates appointed to the State Convention, which meets to-morrow. The proceedings were ordered to be published in the Sentinel, but the near approach of the Convention, and our limited space, must constitute our apology for this meagre abstract.

—We are gratified to learn, from the Journal of Commerce, that Newbern will probably be well represented in the Convention, which assembles to-morrow.

—The very gallant officer presiding over the Bureau in Newbern has sent a white woman to jail, for the crime of owing a negro $1,50, and not having the money to pay.

—The Corn-crib of H. G. Williams, Esq., near Hilliardston, Nash Co., was consumed by fire, a few days since. He lost fifty barrels of corn.

—The Henderson Index, speaking of the invitation to the delegates of the "so-called" to witness the exhibition at the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution, says that, in order to show their appreciation of the compliment, the Convention should invite the pupils to come and witness its performance.

—Tickets are now ready for the travelling public, good from Portsmouth, Va., to Washington, N. C., including omnibus fare, &c., and are fixed at rates identical with those charged by the steamboat lines running from Norfolk to Washington. This is a new arrangement of the Railroad company and will no doubt be suitably appreciated by those having business between the two sections. The Railroad is the shortest route by considerable.

For the Sentinel.

LETTER FROM HON JOSIAH TURNER JR.

To Col. John D. Whitford:—I am exceedingly pleased with your two letters, which appeared recently in the Sentinel, and I thank you most cordially for them.

Closer connexion between the Eastern and Western portions of North Carolina is essential to the well being of the State; in fact, we will have but a poor State without it. The people of Beaufort must know the people of Buncombe—they must trade and traffic, marry and intermarry with each other.

The whole continent trades with New York. Beaufort harbor must introduce the people and trade of Buncombe to that great city.

In return, Buncombe will introduce Beaufort to Tennessee, Memphis and the Mississippi Valley.

The great Pacific Railways, now in process of construction, will introduce us all to the Rocky Mountains, California and the Pacific. God and nature so intended it, and we must do our portion of the work. North Carolina's portion lies between Beaufort harbor and the Tennessee line. Three slight obstacles are in the way of our work, to wit: the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, the Wilmington & Weldon Road and the worthy old town of Newbern.

The Raleigh & Gaston Road will say our's is the short line, and it is in bad faith not to ship by it.

In fact, you have seen and read how I have been denounced, as an enemy to the prosperity of that Road and the State, by a Raleigh newspaper, (now deceased,) because I would not continue the ruinous policy of running freights off of the North Carolina Road upon the Raleigh & Gaston Road, thereby losing thousands to the N. C. Road and the State.

To show you how wedded we are to false policy, every day almost we run our own cars with valuable freights off of our own Road upon the Raleigh & Gaston Road at Raleigh, when we could take them as cheap to the shipper to Goldsboro, and make $14 on the car load, by so doing.

The Wilmington & Weldon Road will not fight against our policy so fiercely as the Raleigh & Gaston Road has done.—That Road will say, if it is to your advantage, go on your way rejoicing, but they will endeavor to make it to the interest of shippers to send by their line, instead of to Beaufort harbor.

But the serious difficulty will be with your own town of Newbern. After the surrender, goods and freights came by way of Newbern for Newbern merchants. Delay, high charges for drayage and storage, drove your last Western customer from the line, by way of Newbern.

If we can make your Road the line, over which the products of North Carolina must reach the sea, it can be done only through Beaufort harbor. Newbern had a fair trial and failed. It is a matter for melancholy reflection, that the great harbor of Beaufort, one of the best along the Atlantic coast, should be used only to scourge the State through the agency of Burnside and his fleet, and, as soon as the scourging is over, and before the wounds are healed, there should be an abandonment of the great harbor, as unfit for trade and commerce. To all unprejudiced minds it is just as clear, that Beaufort harbor is the outlet for our trade and commerce, as it is the inlet for a hostile fleet.

The State being the great stockholder in the three Roads, reaching from Beaufort harbor to the mountains, it is proper that those who manage these roads should co-operate in directing travel and freight over the whole line of the three Roads. I might add that Col. Tate, the President of the Western Road, is fully alive to the importance of carrying freights over your Road to Beaufort, instead of by the Raleigh and Gaston and Wilmington and Weldon Roads to Portsmouth. He will fight with us on that line, as I learned from him long ago.

Allow me to thank you again for your letters, and to say I seek no controversy with other Roads or the good town of Newbern. I wish for the prosperity of all. I work for the prosperity and success of the North Carolina Railroad. I think it proper for the three Roads, in which the State is so largely interested, to co-operate and work together. I know it will add to the commercial, agricultural and every other material interest of the State. If this policy is adverse to the interest of certain Roads and Towns, and depreciates their importance, I shall regret it; but the interest and importance of particular localities must yield to the interest and importance of the whole State.

With every good wish for the policy which you so ably advocate, I am

Your friend and humble servant,
JOSIAH TURNER, JR.,
President N. C. R. R.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT INTERVIEW BETWEEN GEN. GRANT AND HON. RUFUS F. ANDREWS.

The Hon. Rufus F. Andrews, President of the Central Grant Club in New York, was yesterday admitted, after suitable parley, into Gen. Grant's private office. There were present, besides the General and the Honorable Rufus, Old Zach. Chandler, of Michigan, Rufus P. Spaulding, of Ohio, General Cadwallader, and C. Washburne.

The Hon. Rufus F. Andrews said to Gen. Grant that he was very glad to see him, and Gen. Grant told Mr. Andrews that he was very glad to see him.

They then all sat down.

Pretty soon Mr. Andrews said to General Grant:

"General, I have the honor to be President of the Central Grant Club of New York."

"Ah!" said Gen. Grant.

"Yes," said Mr. Andrews; "and in order to prevent at once any misapprehension, I may as well tell you that my first purpose in calling on you to-day is to talk horse."

The General of the armies looked puzzled, but his face brightened up a bit as he responded: "Very well."

General Grant then deliberately took two cigars from his side pocket, put one of them between his teeth, and offered to Mr. Andrews, eyeing the latter gentleman vigilantly all the while. Matches were brought and the General began to smoke.

"Yes," reiterated the Honorable Rufus F. Andrews, "to talk horse; how about Cincinnati?"

"What?"

"I mean, General, have you bought that celebrated stallion?"

"No," said Grant; "I haven't got him."

"Well, how are the mares?"

"The mares," answered the General, "are getting on very well."

The Honorable Rufus F. Andrews, President of the Central Grant Club in New York, paused.

The rest of the company smiled.

And Gen. Grant smoked serenely.

"To vary from horse one moment," Mr. Andrews at length forced himself to remark, "permit me to state, General, that the Central Grant Club in New York has resolved to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the surrender of Fort Donelson. It proposes to have, so to speak, a time on the seventeenth of February next, in honor of you, General, and the gallant troops which you commanded that day."

"Indeed," said General Grant: "how is that? I thought the surrender took place on the sixteenth."

"So it did; but the sixteenth occurs on Sunday," explained Mr. Andrews.

"Very peculiar I hadn't thought of it," audibly mused Gen. Grant.

Another pause, during which everybody in the room, except Gen. Grant, wiggled nervously in his seat.

But the Hon. Mr. Andrews proceeded:

Of course, General, we would like to have you with us. The Club has deputed me to extend to you its cordial invitation to be with us on the occasion. Can we count on your coming?"

Gen. Grant, having quite enshrouded his visage with smoking wreaths, spoke from behind the smudge:

"I don't think I can go. Too much to attend to here in Washington. This story about my unconditional surrender of the War Department to Stanton has created a good deal of bother and worry. Congress hasn't got through with the Reconstruction bills, either. On the whole, you see, sir, that I ought not to avail myself of your kindness."

"Just as you say, General, only I have no doubt that that story in the World about your argument with the President in regard to the War Office was a d—d lie."

As Mr. Andrews assures the writer, the ensuing silence maintained by Gen. Grant and the whole company assembled "was painful."

Mr. Andrews, not quite dismayed, broke the spell again.

"I saw Mr. Johnson last evening, General."

"Did you," replied General.

"And I told him," continued Mr. Andrews, "that I thought posterity would give him credit for extraordinary courage in upholding a great constitutional principle in the face of impeachment."

"Ha!" exclaimed Gen. Grant, elevating his eyebrows and projecting an immense volume of smoke from beneath his moustache, "Big thing."

"But at the same time, or rather at this time," delicately insinuated the politician from New York, "I want to say, General, that I think your chances are great, and that you, sir, could easily render yourself the choice of the people for next President of the United States."

The stillness which succeeded this remark is said to have been absolutely appalling.—Honorable Rufus F. Andrews, who had raisen and bent over towards General Grant with his right forefinger pointed to the great man's button-hole, was galvanized by Grant's eye in that attitude, which he did not relinquish until he was half stifled by the smoke issuing from the General's lips.—He retired coughing.—*Wash. SUPERIOR COURT OF LAW, FALL TERM 1867.

William C. Rhodes, }
vs. } Petition for Divorce.
Lydia Rhodes. }

In this case, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the Sheriff of said County, having returned upon the Petition and subpœna in this cause, to Fall Term, 1867, of said Court, that the defendant was "not to be found." Proclamation was thereupon made at the Court House for said defendant and said defendant not appearing, it was ordered that advertisement be made, in the Sentinel, a newspaper published in the City of Raleigh, for six weeks successively, notifying said defendant to be and appear at the next Term of Wake Superior Court, to be held at the Court House in the City of Raleigh, on the first Monday after the fourth Monday in March next; and if the defendant shall fail to attend at the above named time, then the cause will be determined ex parte.

Witness, J. N. BUNTING, Clerk of our said Court, at office, the first Monday after the fourth Monday of September, A. D. 1867.

Tuesday Morning Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3, P. M.

It is rumored that Mr. Adams, our Minister to England, is about to withdraw from the Court.

The debt statement will be published on Friday, and will be unusually unfavorable.

Gen. Sherman leaves Westward to-night.

The Ways and Means Committee had a long conference with the Tobacco delegation. It is understood that the Committee favors a stamp duty on Tobacco of all forms.

The President has nominated Col. Wigwall Commissioner of Internal Revenue, vice Rollins.

Letters from Chicago represent Mrs. Lincoln as unquestionably insane.

Revenue to-day $1,480,000.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3, P. M.

HOUSE.—The following bills, &c., among others, were introduced, under regular Monday's call:

To provide for the settlement of contracts to enforce coin payments.

To build postal railroad between Washington and New York;

To dredge the Potomac with Convict labor;

To issue one hundred and fifty millions legal tenders, replacing those withdrawn;

To remove the National Capital to St. Louis;

To tax the United States notes, Treasury notes and fractional currency, for State and municipal purposes;

Also several regarding navigation and finances.

The Secretary of War was called on for the correspondence between himself, the President and Grant.

Copies of all orders issued by the District Commanders are demanded.

The Secretary of War was called on for the correspondence between himself, the President and Grant.

Copies of all orders issued by the District Commanders are demanded.

John Young Brown's case was resumed and postponed to the 11th inst.

American citizenship abroad was discussed to adjournment.

SENATE.—Cameron presented a memorial, for recalling Charles Francis Adams.

A bill taxing National Bank shares, for State purposes, passed.

Reconstruction was resumed and discussed to adjournment.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Feb. 3, P. M.

Three sections of the ordinance on the Executive Department were adopted. The Governor is to serve four years and not be eligible for succeeding term. He shall be 30 years old, and a citizen of the United States for 20 years, and a citizen of Virginia for 5 years.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 3, P. M.

Rainey, a colored delegate, offered a resolution, declaring to the people of South Carolina, and the world, that the Convention has no lands at its disposal; that no confiscation act has been passed by Congress, and, in the belief of the Convention, never will be, and that the only manner for the landless to obtain land is by purchase.

A bitter discussion occurred on an ordinance invalidating contracts based on slaves.

The tone of the Convention is growing more Conservative.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.

JACKSON, Feb. 3, P. M.

The printing Committee made a report of compensation to be allowed the official Pridter. One clause reads, "for advertising and publishing official proceedings in State Journal, Vicksburg Republican and Meridian Chronicle, 75 cents per square for each subsequent insertion."

A resolution was offered, providing that if the Convention remains in session forty-five days, the per diem shall stop, after that time.

GEORGIA AFFAIRS.

ATLANTA, Feb. 3, P. M.

The Convention discussed the Relief Bill without coming to a vote.

Gen. Meade has issued an order, modifying Gen. Pope's order No. 40 as follows: First, all papers, except such as threaten appointed officers with violence or future prosecution, are to be allowed to receive advertisements under the State or Municipal laws or ordinances; second, where there is but one paper in a County, it may receive such advertisements, irrespective of its politics; third, all military and civil officers, Registrars, and persons in military employ in the Third Military District, are to see this order enforced. Opposition to reconstruction, when conducted in a legitimate manner, is not to be considered an offence.

C. C. Richardson, one of the Radical delegates to the Convention, was shot and dangerously wounded, to-night, by a Radical politician of this city.

JAIL DELIVERY AND MURDER.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 3, M.

Eighteen prisoners escaped from the jail at St. Josephs, Mo. In the melee, Horace Fish, brother of the Sheriff, was killed, and a prisoner severely wounded.

THE superior merits of the "singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and COARSEST materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st, The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

$1,000,000

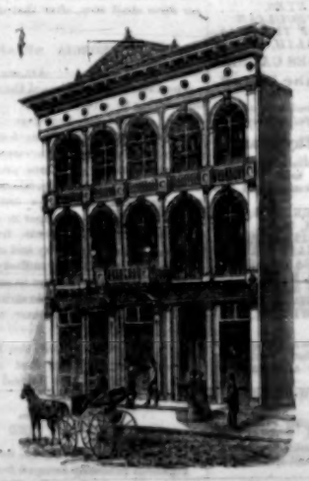
ABOVE LIABILITIES.

A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION.

HAS 32,000 MEMBERS.

AND



HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell. }
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral, and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people.—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 104.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBT.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON BOND DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contracto only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 20th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due; provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
